Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College

YOUR COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Since its beginning as an agricultural high school at Perkinston in 1912, Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College has played a vital role in improving the quality of life for the citizens of South Mississippi. It became one of the nation's first two-year colleges in 1925. When Coast branches were opened in 1965, it became one of the nation's first tri-campus community colleges. With the addition of four centers, Gulf Coast now has eight locations, one within 30 minutes of each household in its four-county district. Your community college serves more that 30,000 students every year.

A Message from the President

Dr. Willis H. Lott

Dr. Willis Lott
President

It's great to have alumni, friends and fans at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College sporting events. We appreciate your support and interest in the Bulldog athletics program.

Our college has a rich tradition of more than nine decades of notable teams, athletes and coaches. This issue of Athletic Review recaps some of that history and includes a preview of the 2003-04 teams and coaches.

I make a point to visit with each team at the start of the season. During our conversations, we talk about their goals for competition. But most importantly, we talk about their goals for life. Gulf Coach coaches and instructors are steadfast in their commitment to helping our athletes be successful on and off the playing field.

You can support our athletes, cheerleaders, Band of Gold members and Perkettes by becoming a member of the Bulldog Club. This organization is truly making a difference in building better teams and facilities at your community college. Our local counties also offer tremendous assistance in maintaining a quality athletics program which provides collegiate-level play for many local athletes.

The athletics program is a significant piece of campus life. There's a spirit of belonging that comes from participating, as a player or spectator, in the game.

Win or lose, we hope you enjoy your time here on campus.

Whether you are a seasoned fan or a newcomer to the Bulldog corner, be sure to join us for homecoming week festivities, Oct. 27 - Nov. 1, 2003.

See you at the game!

From the Athletic Director: Chris Calcote

Chris Calcote

Before becoming Gulf Coast's athletic director, Calcote served as offensive line coach for the Bulldogs. In addition to his AD duties, he teaches health and physical education courses. He spent four years as head coach at Natchez High School before coming to Gulf Coast in 1992. Before being named head football coach for the Stone High Tomcats, he had served as assistant coach. He also coached baseball and football at Laurel, South Jones and North Natchez.

Welcome to another exciting year of Bulldog sports! Our expectations are high again this year for all of our sports programs. We hope you'll consider joining the Bulldog Club (see story on page 7) to help support the sports program of your choice.

This year's Athletic Review is filled with helpful information about each sport, as well as each head coach and his coaching staff. A new addition to this publication is a historical retrospect of our athletic programs since the beginning of Gulf Coast. It is my hope that you will enjoy all this publication has to offer. Moreover, I hope you enjoy the enthusiasm of our team members, coaches and Bulldog fans. Also, please make note of the business advertisements in this year's edition. These Bulldog fans are true and constant Gulf Coast supporters. It's with pleasure that I sincerely thank each one of them, as I also thank each of you, for helping with the commitment to make Gulf Coast sports No. 1 in the record books and in our fans' hearts.

As we begin the 2003-04 school year, I want to personally share with you our accomplishments from last year, as well as our hopes for this year. Bill Lee begins his second year as head football coach, and the outlook for a winning season is very promising.

The Lady Bulldog basketball team, coached by Greg Holmes, had an outstanding year with a record of 19-6. Coach Holmes has hopes to return to the State Tournament with the signing of a talented new group of freshmen players.

Coach Wendell Weathers begins his second year as mentor of the men's Bulldog basketball team. His team participated in both the State and Region 23 tournaments last year. A strong recruiting class should help bring the Dogs back to the top of the ranks.

Bulldog baseball had a very successful campaign last year, finishing second in both the MACJC State and Region 23 tournaments. Coach Cooper Farris has a good group of sophomores returning and is expected to make a run for both titles again in 2004. Coach Kenneth Long has continued the tradition of winning for the ladies' softball team by taking the 2003 MACJC State Championship for the second year in a row. The Bulldogs have now won four consecutive state championships. This year's team will be young, but with key returning sophomores, this team could be on top again easily.

This year, Coach Bary Thrash begins his sixth year as head coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams. Great strides were made last year with the men's soccer team winning the first-ever state championship for Gulf Coast. Coach Thrash is looking forward to having even better teams as we begin a new season.

Coach Charlie Serpente's men's tennis team finished third in the State Tournament last year, with two players making their way to nationals. Coach Serpente also coaches the women's team and looks for the spring season to be stronger and more competitive than ever for both teams.

Last year, the men's Bulldog golf team finished second in the MACJC tournament, and Gulf Coast's Tim McCabe was the Medalist for the State and Regional tournaments, while Gulf Coast sent three players to the National Tournament in Phoenix, Ariz.

Coach Tommy Snell will begin his fourth year as the men's golf coach and is excited about the upcoming season.

Once again, I'd like to say "thanks" for your support of Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Go 'Dogs!

Join the Bulldog Club!

The doghouse will be rocking this year as more than 200 student athletes lace them up to represent the college's ten sports programs. One of the best ways to root for your favorite team and the athletic department is by joining the Bulldog Club. The club is open to anyone -- former athletes, coaches, Band of Gold members, Perkettes, cheerleaders and current Bulldog fans.

The Bulldog Club gives Gulf Coast sports fans another important way to support and improve the college's sports programs. Membership starts at just $30 for an entire year with all funding going directly to sports programs. There are also five different donation levels to fit every Bulldog fan. Plus, you'll get benefits such as quarterly issues of the alumni magazine Action and the yearly Athletic Review sports program.

"Your membership will make our athletics, our Band of Gold, our Perkettes and our cheerleaders even more vital to the college," says Dr. Willis Lott, Gulf Coast president. "You'll be the core of our sports program, celebrating such events as annual homecoming reunions and participating in Gulf Coast's Athletic Hall of Fame process."

Contributions of $30-$99 make you an official member. A donation of $100-$199 earns the "True Blue" level of recognition. Donations of $200-$499 earn the "Hearts of Gold" level. Contributions of $500-$999 earn the "Varsity Club" level of recognition and a VIP parking pass for all home games. Donations of $1,000 or more earn the "Championship Circle" level and a VIP parking pass. All donors of $100 or more will be awarded gifts during the college's annual Hall of Fame banquet.

"Your financial support can provide funds for scholarships, equipment, travel and other items that will enhance the experiences of Gulf Coast athletes and the other student groups that rally for the teams," Lott says.

You can use the Bulldog Club membership form below, or go to www.mgccc.edu. For more information about the Bulldog Club, call Chris Calcote at 601-928-6224, or e-mail chris.calcote@mgccc.edu.

Athletic Hall of Fame

Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College is proud to induct six deserving members into this year's Athletic Hall of Fame. All of the information for this year's inductees was supplied by MGCCC achivist Charles Sullivan.

Harold Taylor White
Football Player, Basketball and Football Coach, Athletic Director

Harold Taylor White, a Stone County native, was born May 27, 1924, and died Aug. 27, 1987. He is the first deceased person to be selected for either MGCCC Hall of Fame and the only person to be selected simultaneously for both.

White began his athletic training at Wiggins High School, where he played football and basketball. In 1942, he went on to Perkinston Junior College, where he was a member of that year's state-champion football team. At the close of the first semester, he entered the United States Army Air Corps and served until the end of World War II, attaining the rank of sergeant E-5.

White returned to Perk in February 1946 and graduated in May 1947. Beginning in fall 1948, White spent three years coaching the Perkinston Consolidated High School Eagle football team. His 1950 Eagle team won the Dairy Bowl. In August 1951, he crossed the road to Perkinston Junior College and signed on as assistant football coach. (Perkinston CHS is now Perkinston Elementary School, one block east of the Perkinston Campus.)

The following August, the college named him head football coach, but his players named him "War Daddy." On one occaision he directed friendly fire at one of his own tanks. Bulldog Talbot "Tank" Pennison, in the game against the Tyler Apaches in Tyler, Texas, on Oct. 25, 1956, became enraged at the lopsided 39-0 scalping at the hands of the Apaches. When Apache Ottis Hargett broke loose and ran wide open to an unopposed touchdown, Tank came off the bench and blindsided him with full force. Tank's efforts were all for naught, and officials ruled the interrupted run a Tyler touchdown. George Sekul, another Bulldog present at the game, recalled, "The only man that got hit harder that night than Ottis Hargett was Tank, when Coach White hit him for hitting Hargett."

In his five-year tenure as head football coach, White turned in a barely-winning 25-24-2 record, but Don Massengale, one of his former players, avows that "War Daddy's" win/loss record was no gauge of his contributions. As Massengale puts it, "The real test of those dealing with young hearts, minds and bodies is what impact did that person have in forming the attitude and mindset that would guide the student's/player's future."

Massengale admits that Alabama's famed Paul "Bear" Bryant won more -far more - games than White did, but he says White equaled Bryant when it came to teaching young men about applying the principles of courage, perseverance, effort and leadership in their everyday lives.

The leadership record and athletic attainments of White's former players bear witness to Massengale's claims. Massengale is a member of the college's Board of Trustees and has served the group as chairman. Six of White's former players -Bill Dooley, Eddie Khayat, Davis Mortensen, Sue Ross, George Sekul and Vernon Ehlers - are already enshrined in either the MGCCC Athletic Hall of Fame or the Alumni Hall of Fame, or both. Two of those, Ross and Sekul, have been inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association Hall of Fame, and another, Khayat, became a professional football player and coach.

Khayat, who joins White in the 2003 Athletic Hall of Fame, remembers his training under "War Daddy." He says, "I never [again] had to do anything as difficult, including two years of football at Tulane; 10 National Football League training camps; basic training at Ft. Jackson; and Officer Candidate School in Ft. Benning. [Coach White] had more influence on me than anyone else, except Jesus Christ and my daddy."

White contributed two trophies to the MGCCC Archives. Both were engraved with 1953, a year filled with athletic accomplishments for White. In spring 1953, his women's basketball team (the Perkettes) won the South Division crown. This was the only Mississippi Junior College Athletic Association basketball trophy won by a college men's or women's team between 1929 and 1960. In fall 1953, his football Bulldogs tied Co-Lin 6-6 in the Laurel Lions Bowl. Perk and Wesson received duplicate trophies.

White served as the college's athletic director from January 1957 to June 28, 1961, when he became director of Student Personnel. Three years later, he became administrative assistant in charge of Public Relations, a position he held until April 21, 1965, when he resigned to accept the presidency of Northeast Mississippi Junior College.

Doris Ruth "Blackie" Smith
Basketball, Softball, Tennis and Volleyball Coach
Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior/Community College
August 1972-May 1992

Doris "Blackie" Smith is one of the most diverse and successful coaches in the college's rich sports history. Her thick black hair earned her a lifelong nickname. Her 20 years as a coach in basketball, tennis, volleyball and softball earned her a reputation as a teacher and a competitor at the college.

Legendary Coach Sue Ross first hired her in 1972 as a basketball assistant coach. Smith was an important part of the coaching staff, as Ross's teams went on to win a national championship and two state championships.

Smith soon earned a name for herself during basketball's off-season. In 1975, she guided both the women's volleyball and tennis teams to state championships as head coach. But Smith's biggest accomplishments still lay ahead.

The highlight of Smith's career would be carved out in the red clay of the women's softball field from 1975-1990. Along with winning, her teams also laid the foundation of the college's softball program during several important transition periods in the state's sanctioning. Over 15 seasons, Smith's softball teams won a division title (1988), two state titles (1977, 1981), two State/Region 23 championships (1984, 1986) and ranked No.7 nationally (1986). Her leadership on the diamond was recognized in 1986 when she was named MAJC and NJCAA's softball Coach of the Year.

In 1979, Smith's career came full circle at the college after being named head coach of the women's basketball team upon Ross's retirement. In 1988, her team won the South Division title and she was selected MAJC Coach of the Year for women's basketball.

Smith retired from Gulf Coast in 1992 after more than 250 career wins across all four sports. Over the last decade, Smith has stayed busy teaching special education in Magee, Miss. She came back to the Perkinston Campus for the first time since retiring in April 2003 to watch the ladies' softball team win a state championship.

Frances Lorette (Rouse) Compton
Basketball, Pep Squad and Tennis
Perkinston Junior College
Sept. 9, 1946 -Aug. 6, 1948

Lorette Rouse Compton played basketball in an era when gold, shimmering satin jerseys were the fad and six teammates played on the court. The nation was just emerging from war, and the role of women was changing. Compton came to Perkinston in 1946 to play basketball on a work scholarship.

The word "gamer" might be the best way to describe Compton. When the game was on the line, she made a habit of stepping up to lead all scoring. As a freshman, she led two come-from-behind victories in division play. The Daily Herald newspaper described Compton as a shooting forward who "dropped sinkers from every angle." More than just the local newspaper noticed her efforts - she was selected All-State in 1947.

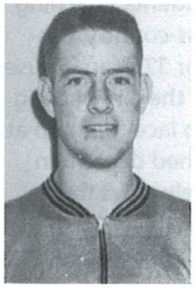
During the state play-offs, Compton always took her game to a higher level. She was selected as an All-Star in both the 1947 and 1948 state tournaments. Her last game as a "Perk Girl" came in the 1948 state championship game. Her team would fall but not without a fight from Compton. She poured in half of the team's points in the loss.

Compton also lettered in tennis in 1947-48.

The leadership Compton displayed on the court was also seen off the court. She was the vice president of the Wesley Foundation and secretary of the Athletic Board. She also remained busy participating in the YWCA, Drama Club and the Pep Squad.

After leaving college, Compton continued playing basketball in several amateur leagues. She married Thomas Compton in 1950 and had six children. Her love of basketball has never faded and she played until age 70.

At 75, Compton has kept in touch with the Perkinston Campus and recently donated several basketball photographs for the college's history book. She is celebrating her induction with her brother Jerry Rouse, who was also selected this year.



Jerry Edward Rouse
Baseball, Basketball and Cheerleading
Perkinston Junior College
Sept. 5, 1956-May 18, 1958

For Jerry Edward Rouse, sports and athletic competition has always been a part of his life. This love of sports led him to Perkinston in 1957 as a basketball and baseball player.

Rouse had an outstanding freshman year in basketball, earning the reputation of a defender with quick hands and a shooter on offensive. The 6-foot-1 forward averaged 12 points a game and earned All-State basketball honors in 1957.

Former basketball coach Mel Carpenter remembers one play in Mobile, Ala., where Rouse refused to give up. Rouse was "struggling for a loose ball against several Spring Hill players lying on the floor... and couldn't find any open teammates. Lying on the floor, he shot and made the field goal between all his opponents. That was Jan. 27, 1957, and I have not seen anything like that since."

Rouse would also make memories on the baseball diamond. He was a curveballing right-hander who made a habit of pitching complete games. During one stretch in the 1958 season, he twirled 28 scoreless innings and helped guide the Bulldogs to a South Division title.

Sports again proved to be Rouse's ticket to continue his education after graduating from Perk. In 1959, he attended Northeast Louisiana University where he earned his bachelor's degree on a two-year baseball scholarship. Rouse pitched several years in the La-Ark Amateur Baseball League and was named an All-Star in 1960.

In 1961, Rouse began his long career as a teacher in the Long Beach School System. He passed along his love of sports to countless students, coaching high-school track, cross-country, basketball and baseball for 37 years. Rouse is now an alderman in the city of Long Beach and still loves to lace them up at 65. He is an accomplished decathlon contestant and routinely plays three-man basketball.

Rouse is celebrating his induction with his sister Lorette Rouse Compton, who was also selected this year.

George Vernon Ehlers
Baseball, Basketball, Football and Track
Perkinston Agricultural High School
Fall 1956-May 22, 1957
Perkinston Junior College
Sept. 2, 1957-May 17, 1959

George Vernon Ehlers holds a unique record - he is the college's most photographed male student in the 20th century, says historian Charles Sullivan. The reason behind this record is easy to see when any yearbook from 1957 to 1959 is examined. Ehlers was a four-sport letterman (baseball, football, basketball and track), an active student in Youth Congress, student government, and P Club and was class president.

Another important factor behind Ehlers' record is that he played three years of college sports at Perk. He was a student at Perkinston Agricultural High School and was eligible to play college ball earlier. He made an immediate impact on the diamond his first year by leading the team in stolen bases.

Ehlers would end up leading the team in stolen bags all three years. Former coach Mel Carpenter says Ehlers had a knack for nabbing bases. "Vernon was one of the few players that I gave the green light to steal bases. He turned many walks and singles into two and three baggers." During Ehlers' time, the baseball team won three South Division titles and a state championship.

The Moss Point native brought that same attitude to the football field. Playing both offense and defense, he always seemed to be around the ball. He caught touchdown passes from famed quarterback George Sekul and was a play-maker on defensive. The Daily Herald wrote in 1957, "Vernon Ehlers was particularly impressive in his first start for the Perk squad. He covered several fumbles and was a defensive standout." Ehlers continued to stand out earning NJCAA All-American (1959) and All-State honors (1958, 1959).

Ehlers went on to letter in football and baseball at Florida State University. He returned to the Mississippi Gulf Coast in 1961 to begin a long career as both a teacher and administrator in the Long Beach School System. He has remained an active alumnus for the last 44 years.

Eddie Michel Khayat
Basketball and Football
Perkinston Junior College
Sept. 7, 1954-Aug. 5, 1955
MGCCC Alumni Hall of Fame, 1975

Eddie Michel Khayat was 19 when he came to Perkinston in September 1954. He would only stay a year, but in that short time, he built a lifelong relationship with the college and its alumni. Despite being new to Coach Harold White's football team and system, Khayat was able to learn quickly and make an impact on the field. Only one month after enrolling, Khayat was making headlines. The Daily Herald wrote on Oct. 7, 1954, "Khayat, Moss Point, played an excellent game and caught a 28-yard pass on the four-yard line to go over for a touchdown. He also showed up well on defense."

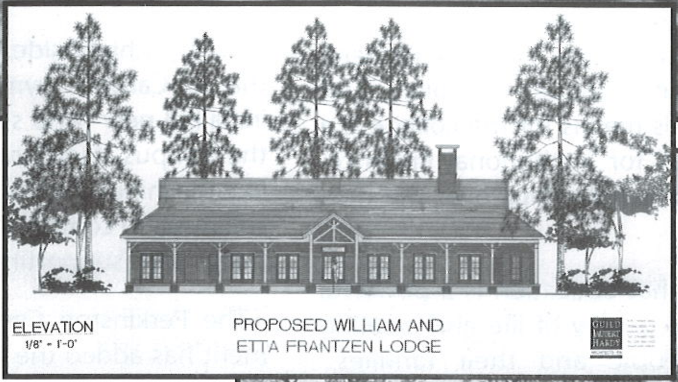
It was that defense that would be the foundation of Khayat's long football career. He graduated from Perk in 1955 with letters in football and basketball, along with being named Second Team All-State in football. Only two years later, Khayat was playing at defensive tackle in the NFL.

Years later, at a ceremony for the college's 1971 national championship football team, Khayat recounted how much his time at Perk meant. "We had a coach at Perkinston named Harold White, a real important man in my life...I don't know if you would believe...the length of the practices. I never had to do anything as tough since I left junior college to go to Tulane...That's where I became a man."

Khayat would play 10 seasons of professional football with three teams and earn a World Championship with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1960. He would put on the pads for the last time as a player in 1966, but he would not leave the gridiron. He then jumped from playing to coaching, a versatility possessed by few players.

Khayat got his start in1967 as a defensive line coach with New Orleans. Four years later, he would lead the Philadelphia Eagles as head coach. He would prove as good a defender coaching from the sidelines as he was on the field for 25 seasons in both the NFL and the Arena Football League.

Frantzen Property Develops



A gift delivered to the college seven years ago will be unwrapped for the first time during this year's homecoming celebration. The 170-acre Frantzen property will be opened to visitors in October and will feature two fishing spots, nature trials and several RV camp sites.

Full-time work began almost a year ago to transform the rugged timberland into an outdoor facility for the college. The property was donated in 1996 by the late William "Ship" Frantzen, an alumnus of Harrison-Stone AHS and Harrison-Stone-Jackson AHS and Junior College, and his late wife, Etta. It is still the most valuable gift ever given to Gulf Coast.

The property, located two miles south of the Perkinston Campus, will be the perfect spot for out-of-state alumni traveling the roads. "Every year we have several alumni drive their RVs to attend our homecoming celebrations," says Dr. Mary Graham, vice president of the Perkinston Campus. "This year we will have a very special place for them to stay. This is just the first example of the benefits the Frantzen property will bring to the college."

Most of the remaining work is centered around the fishing piers on both the pond and the lake. Crews finished digging the clay-based fishing spots in the spring and are in the process of filling each with water. Driving around the property is also much easier now with the completion of several gravel roads.

Future plans also include a 100-seat outdoor amphitheatre, camping sites, large picnic areas and a spacious retreat lodge. These renovations are being funded in part through timber sales from the property.

Coca-Cola Helps Gulf Coast

A strong partnership with the Coca-Cola Company equals great benefits for Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College and its students, says Becky Montgomery, associate vice president for Development at Gulf Coast.

The most recent evidence of this came when Dr. Reginald Sykes, Jefferson Davis Campus vice president, signed a seven-year exclusive-use contract with the company in May, 2003. Also signing for the partnership, which has existed at the Perkinston Campus for the past two years, was Dirk Barrient, vice president/division manager of Coke's Gulf Coast region. What this means for the college is a $20,000 signing bonus for institutional enhancements and $22,100 for scholarships over the next seven years.

"Coca-Cola believes that education is a powerful force in improving the quality of life and creating opportunities for people and their families," Montgomery says. "The company is committed to helping people make their dreams come true. Keeping with that philosophy, this partnership agreement with the JD Campus will enhance facilities and provide scholarships, all which affect our students and make a positive difference in their experience at our college."

The company sponsored this scoreboard at the JD gym.

On the athletic side, Coke will fund scoreboards for the JD Campus gym. The company has already installed new wind screens on the tennis courts at the campus. Montgomery adds, "Profits from vending machines, bookstore sales and cafeteria sales will result in commission checks being added to the Coke funds supporting our college."

The Perkinston Campus/Coast Coca-Cola agreement has added the Coke logo across the campus. "Visits to the athletic fields and facilities reflect the Coke commitment to the Perkinston Campus. Clocks and scoreboards are distinctly marked with reminders of the Coca-Cola commitment to partnerships in education," Montgomery says.

Coca-Cola's combined commitment to the college is over $265,000 for the contract periods.

"We are pleased to be hosting athletics events at our commuter campus. The Coca-Cola partnership is benefiting more than 4,000 students that attend JD and the community members who come to the campus for special events of all types."

Stone County

YOUNG & AGGRESSIVE

Stone County, called "The Heart of the Mississippi Panhandle" and located in southeast Mississippi, boasts of features that make it a prime location and distribution center. Officially organized on May 10, 1916, the county has seen forestry and forest products industries become the mainstay of its economy.

Although timber is the major industry in Stone County, officials and residents alike recognize the need for diversification and have adopted an aggressive attitude toward controlled industrial growth. County leaders are aggressively seeking new sources of economic growth.

The home of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College's Perkinston Campus, Stone County also boasts a fine system of public schools. For hunters, the county offers thousands of acres of woodlands teeming with game animals. Flint Creek Water Park provides facilities for a full range of recreational activities.

2002-2003 Year in Review

Football

The 2002 football season slipped away from the Bulldogs (4-5) during the last two games. A heartbreaking 42-41 loss to the Pearl River Wildcats and a loss to Jones Bobcats kept the Bulldogs out of the state playoffs and from having a winning record.

Before the skid, first-year head coach Bill Lee seemed to have breathed life back into a football program that had missed the post season for the last 16 years. During the off-season, Lee signed more than 20 outstanding local high-school players.

Men's Soccer

On Nov. 3, 2002, the men's soccer team won the State/Region 23 championship on the Perkinston Campus in a thrilling overtime shoot-out victory over Hinds Community College. The 2-1 shoot-out was sweet revenge for Gulf Coast, who lost the same championship to Hinds the year before in overtime.

The players and coaching staff dedicated the game to the memory of their teammate, sophomore Jason Bays, who died in car accident just weeks before.

This is the program's first state championship since being formed just five years ago. This is the fastest any Gulf Coast sports program has won a state title after being created.

Women's Soccer

The 2002 women's soccer team (5-10-2) continued showing signs of improving and maturing as a program entering its fifth season in existence. A highly competitive South District didn't allow the Lady Bulldogs a margin of error and served as a guidepost of where the program is headed. In the off season, head coach Bary Thrash signed several high school seniors he believes will make an immediate impact on the field.

Men's Basketball

The men's basketball team used a four-game winning streak to close out the 2003 regular season and land a spot in the state and regional playoffs. The post-season appearance marks an impressive comeback for the team, which at one point was two games under .500 and out of the playoff picture.

The Bulldogs couldn't keep their winning streak alive in the first round of the state tournament on Feb. 25. The team lost a highly contested game to the Northwest Rangers, 74-78. The Rangers then eliminated Gulf Coast in the regional tournament on March 3 to finish the season at 14-13.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Bulldog team (17-8) entered the Region 23 playoffs as a hungry and aggressive No. 8 seed after missing out on the state tournament. After two weeks of preparation, the team faced off against top-seeded Co-Lin Community College (28-0) on March 4.

The preparation paid off for the Lady Bulldogs, who had a 2-point lead early in the second half, but an explosion of points from the Lady Wolves ended Gulf Coast's season with a 73-52 loss.

Softball

Gulf Coast won its second fast-pitch softball state championship under second-year head coach Kenneth Long. The Lady Bulldogs earned the right to host the state tournament in late April after winning the South Division in the regular season. It's the college's fourth softball state championship in a row.

The team gave hometown fans something to cheer about, going undefeated in the state tournament and sweeping Northeast Mississippi Community College for the title. Sophomore pitcher Shanna Walters threw 30 straight innings for Gulf Coast and only gave up five runs for the entire tournament. The softball team finished second at the Region 23 tournament.

Baseball

The baseball team made it to the championship game in both the state and regional play-offs in May. The team earned second-place finishes in both tournaments and completed the season 30-15. The Bulldogs were just 18 outs away from winning Region 23 and advancing to district play when Meridian Community College's pitching and hitting came alive.

The team's deep run into both post season tournaments returned head coach Copper Farris' team to its winning legacy. Several sophomore players signed with four-year universities following the season. Farris is already reloading for next season with the signing of 14 local high school seniors for 2004.

Tennis

The duo of Karol Zarucki and Tam Tran combined to win the State/Region 23 doubles tennis title on April 27, 2003, at the JD Campus. Zarucki also went on to win the single title for the state 6-1, 6-1. Tran came in third place in singles competition.

The two qualified for the National Tennis Tournament in Plano, Texas. Zanucki won his opening match 6-3, 6-7, 6-3. Tran also won his opener 6-1, 6-1. The two were eliminated in the second round after hard-fought matches against Laredo and Georgia Perimeter community colleges.

Golf

The 2003 golf team staged an impressive comeback victory at the state/regional tournament at the Great Southern Club in Gulfport to take second place. The team was down 18 strokes and rallied past two teams in windy conditions on the last day of the tournament.

The team was led by sophomore Tim McCabe, who fired a one-under-par 70 and won the individual state title. McCabe, along with Gulf Coast golfers Tyler Spruill and James Rentrop, earned a trip to the National Golf Tournament in Phoenix, Ariz., in late May. The trio represented the college well, scoring in the top 50 of the 200-player field.

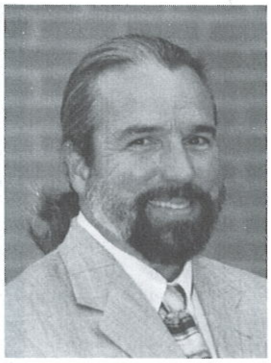
2003-04 Band of Gold



David Dueitt, Band Director

Band of Gold goes red, white and blue

The Band of Gold is dedicating its 2003 fall season to the men and women protecting our country both at home and overseas. The band will perform a patriotic half-time show to honor all current and retired military veterans. The nine-minute program will delight audiences with classic patriotic songs, along with a few new twists.

David Dueitt, band director for the last 16 years, says this year's theme seemed appropriate. "The show will celebrate all the freedoms we have because of our brave servicemen and servicewomen. The show will also bring back all those patriotic songs that you only hear on national holidays but with a whole lot of action and movement."

The complex musical piece will be performed by one of the college's largest bands, with more than 170 students participating in the show. Percussion will be a big part of the band's sound this year, with a 30-member drum line. The band's flag guard has also increased to 31 performers, all wearing new royal blue crushed-velvet uniforms.

"This year's band is a great representation of the college's four-county district. We have talented musicians and dancers from all across the Coast. And they're all excited about this year's show and its message," Dueitt says.

Perkettes salute America

The Perkettes Dance Team, along with the Band of Gold, is saluting America with patriotic performances this season. The 20-member team will do a feature dance to "Stars and Stripes." This year's routine combines several forms of dance, including jazz, ballet, high kicking and gymnastics.

Kathleen Braun, the Perkettes sponsor for 16 years, says the team is working hand-in-hand with the band to produce an entertaining show. "Our goal is to accompany this wonderful music. We want our performance to be music for the eyes and bring these songs to life for the audience."

This year's team is made up of four sophomores and 16 freshmen. Beth Wathke, a sophomore from D'Iberville, says working personally with the new members is the key. "A lot of this routine is new for the freshmen, and they need to know they can do it with practice. We are lucky to have so many talented girls this year."

Perkettes on their toes

What's the best way to take the football field? For the Perkettes, the only way is in a pair of gold two-inch heels. This year's dance team is following in the footsteps of the more than 50 years of Perkettes. High heels -in some form of shoes or boots- have been a staple for the acclaimed dance team since the 1950s.

Current Perkettes practice on the football field for several weeks in their heels to prepare for the season. Sophomore Christina Hardt says it takes a little time to get used to the modified-leather dancing shoe. "The secret is to keep the heel off the ground. We stay on our toes the whole time. It's the only way to keep the heel from digging into the turf. If the field gets muddy, it can be tough. Good balance is the most important thing."

From the football field to food drives, the 2003-2004 Gulf Coast cheerleaders are going to be everywhere according to the team's new sponsor, Nikki Hayes. "My goal is to get this squad involved with all the college's sports teams and throughout the local community. When people see our cheerleaders, they're going to see our college's pride and spirit."

Pride and spirit are two reasons why Hayes was selected to run this year's team. She's a Gulf Coast alumnae and former cheerleader. She is currently working full time as a behavior specialist in the Stone County school system and is excited about her new part-time job. She is also living on the Perkinston Campus with her husband, Patrick, who is the Harrison Hall resident manager and assistant soccer coach.

"It's great to be back and involved with the college's cheerleading team. I want these students to be able to look back and see what a great experience they had representing the college in such a public way," Hayes says.

This year's team is made up of 15 students and has a good mixture of sophomores and freshmen. The squad is practicing twice a week and is working on several new cheers and techniques. "We are fortunate to have eight sophomores to show our new members the ropes. We are working mainly on timing and having good performances," Hayes says.

Coach Lee's comments: "This team is going to be prepared to take the field this season, both physically and mentally. We are working hard with them on the four C's -- character, class, commitment and concentration. We have some talent in key positions and have the potential to be vastly improved on and off the field this season. This team will work hard on every play and in every class."

Coach Thrash's coments on Women's Socccer: "We are looking for a bright and successful year. We have a number of talented freshmen coming in to join with our sophomores which should make a good mix. The key will be our players coming together on and off the field. The level of women's soccer throughout the state has continually increased, so we have to be better to compete for South Division and state championships."

Coach Thrash's comments on Men's Soccer: "The majority of our team last year was sophomores, which means we have a great deal of rebuilding to do. This year's team will consist of a large number of freshmen along with our returning sophomores. We are going to be inexperienced and will have our work cut out to repeat last year's state championship. Our young players are committed to our program and continuing our high standard of achievement."

HIGGINBOTHAM REPORT
1926 - 2003

Gary Higginbotham, MGCJC class of 1965, compiled the scores of the Perkinston institution's junior college football games from 1926 to 2000. He graciously consented to the use of this report for this work. The MGCCC archivist verified the junior college scores with the information at his disposal, which amounted to about 80 percent of the games. In many cases, different newspapers gave conflicting scores for the same game. In some cases, the same newspaper in different articles gave conflicting scores for the same game. In a few cases, the same newspaper article gave two different scores for the same game. With that in mind, Higginbotham and the archivist agree that the following scores are complete and are as accurate as possible. The Higginbotham Report (related to junior college games) was first printed in the MGCCC Athletic Review in August 1998. That list was revised in 1999 and in 2000. The lists contained in those three MGCCC Athletic Reviews are incorrect and should not be used for reference. The name of the Perkinston institution changed several times from 1926 to 2001, with the term "Gulf Coast" achieving widespread use only after 1962. But in identifying the Bulldog scores in the Higginbotham Report, the archivist elected to use the initials "GC" throughout. In the lists, homecoming games are identified by bold print.

1943

Perkinston Junior College did not field a football team for the 1943 football season. Lack of player manpower, travel restrictions, limitation of playing time to day games and so on all played a part in the decision not to field a football team.

HIGGINBOTHAM REPORT

AGRICULTURAL HIGH SCHOOL "AGGIE" AND "BULLPUP" FOOTBALL SCORES

1914 - 1961

Gary Higginbotham, MGCJC class of 1965, compiled the scores of the Perkinston institution's high school football games from 1914 to 1961. He graciously consented to the use of this report for this work. The Perkinston institution underwent several name changes between 1912 and 1925, but the football team retained the name "Aggies" until midseason 1925. The Agricultural High School at Perkinston fielded its first "Aggie" team in fall 1914. The Higginbotham Report AHS scores are incomplete due to fragmentary records.

In the 1925 season the school also began fielding a junior varsity or "scrub" or "second-string" team known as the "Bullpups." In the 1926 season, with the fielding of a junior college team, the "Bullpups" became the high school team. The purpose of the "Bullpup" team was to train "Bulldogs." So far as can be ascertained, the "Bullpups" played only one or two games a year from 1925 to 1931. From 1925 through 1928 Coach W. C. "Bill" Denson had charge of the "Bullpups" as well as the "Bulldogs." In 1930 Coach Lee Roy Weeks served in Denson's former role.

Only the high school fielded a team in 1943. The junior college team did not play due to travel restrictions accompanying World War II rationing and because most of the men went into the service. The Perkinston Agricultural High School team styled itself the "Bulldogs" in 1943, so in this listing the team will be styled "Bulldogs AHS."

"Little Perk"
Perkinston Consolidated High School "Eagles"
1948-1951

1948

In fall 1948 Perkinston Consolidated School, also known as "Little Perk," added the 11th and 12th grades, becoming Perkinston Consolidated High School. The PCHS fielded a football team known as the "Eagles." Because of the symbiotic relationship between "Little Perk" and "Big Perk," the "Eagles" scores were included herein. Homecoming games are identified by bold print.

Women's Sports

The Mississippi Association of Junior Colleges (MAJC) suspended state sanctions for all women's intercollegiate teams except tennis from 1955-1974. In those years, the Mississippi Association of Extramural Athletics for College Women (MAEACW) served as a Mississippi state organization connected to a national organization known as the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW). After 1972, the MAEACW affiliated more closely with the AIAW, yielding the shorter acronym MAIAW to describe state play. In 1974, the MAJC once again sanctioned women's basketball, but MAIAW continued parallel to MAJC play for several years in basketball and as the sole league in other women's sports. For example, the MAJC did not sanction softball until 1981. Eventually the MAJC asserted control over all women's intercollegiate sports and the MAIAW league disappeared. Just as MAJC supplanted MAIAW so did the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) supplant the AIAW organization. In late 1987 MAJC, was changed to MACJC (Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges) to correspond with some junior colleges changing their names to "community" colleges.
